FROM THE BARON AND BARONESS

Greetings to the populace,

What a wonderful summer it has been traveling the Kingdom, making new friendships, and renewing old ones. Her Excellency enjoyed her time at Challenge of the Sands; congratulations to Mistress Monika (siege cooking) and Sir Jochen (tweenware) for their victories, and War of the Staked Plains, thank you to all that traveled with her and helped! Estrella negotiations were interesting as usual but more on that later. We cannot speak highly enough about the quality of works seen at Queen's Prize, it was truly an amazing display. To everyone that went, competed, and displayed Huzzah! Congratulations to THLady Margherita for being recognized for her calligraphy and illumination.

Closer to home, the College of St. Goliath did a fantastic job with Feast Day, fun and delicious, thank you to everyone that attended us there. Also, they issued an invitation to any al-Barranians to attend their regular fighter practices Saturdays at 3pm. Please help them, the more the merrier at practices. Micheal McQuillan and crew also did a great job with Esperanza, and the final tournaments from Champions. Thank you to Master Tore and Don Govanen for coming up with such fun formats. Congratulations to our new Master Swordsman, Sir Lavan, and Premiere Blade, Lord Giovanni. Huzzah. Also to Master Adam and Lord Giovanni for winning the Esperanza daggers for this year. The event was lots of fun and hope has been renewed!

The time has come to gear up and train for Estrella War. The treaty is now signed and available on-line (www.estrellawar.org). Take a few minutes to review it; scenarios for heavy, rapier, and target archery are there, the conventions for armored combat have changed (arrow and siege shots), and the categories for A&S are there for 2005 and 2006. It is also time to start planning for land needs. If you would like to camp with the Barony, please email us your numbers and tent sizes by 12/5, estimates are fine. If there is enough interest in getting a bus and/or stuff truck for the Barony, let us know if you would use a ride, and/or your stuff would use a ride, to Estrella, by 12/5. We are also seeking a deputy land-o-crat to help plan the Baronial space and general volunteers for all aspects of Estrella (security, waterbearers, marshals, churgeons, early arrival, etc). Do you have your Guido or Cordone Scorpion? Would you like to? If so, you must practice with the Barony, petition us, and fight with al-Barran at Estrella. Then join us under the Guido banner on the field Sunday for the castle resurrection battles.

Several local events approach, please join us as we celebrate the succession of our Crown at Coronation 11/13 at the College of Blaiddwyn. The Day of Arts & Sciences and Toys-4-Tots, 11/20-11/21 promise learning, fighting, and fun aplenty for all, start mongering your toys now! Her Excellency will also be traveling to the Barony of Bonwicke in Ansteorra (Lubbock, TX) for their Midwinter 12/4-5 to renew friendships and gather allies. al-Barran Midwinter/War Practice is also near, 12/18-19, the Yule log is cut and the clothes are cut out (now to sew, sew, sew).

We are accepting applications for Hospitaller and Equestrian Marshal, many thanks to Lady Isabella and THLady Dubheasa for their dedication to these offices. We are also seeking deputies for our Reeve, Scorpion Pursuivant (Herald) and Seneschal offices. If you are interested in any aspect of the Baronial operation, please find an officer and ask to help.

If you know of a potential site for Grand Outlandish, let us know ASAP. There is a form available on our website (www.al-Barran.org) with general information and instructions. We know the sites are out there, help us find them!

Thank you all for a wonderful first camping season!

FROM THE SENESCHAL

Greetings,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Lord Michael and all those that helped with Esperanza. It was a spectacular event in case you missed it. Congratulations to all the tourney winners as well. Also, I would like to recognize all the new Baronial Champions. Huzzah to all. Now onward for Toys, Toys, Toys, and more Toys!!!!

I would like to bring a couple of items to the attention of the populace. The first is the search for new event sites. If you know of anyone that has a space that would accommodate an event, please fill out the top portion of the site information sheet and return it to me. I will then follow up, and deal further with the site owner. The site information sheet may be found on our website, or you can request one from me directly. We are currently looking for a new site for Grand Outlandish, but would be willing to look for sites that could host smaller events as well.

Secondly, I am in need of a drop dead deputy for the Baronial Seneschal's office. If you would be interested in this office please contact me by any means you would like, and I will get back to you. You need not have any official experience as a seneschal, just a sense of organization, and a willingness to learn. It is really not as daunting a task as some would lead you to believe. Please let me know if you have any interest in this office, and I will be more than happy to discuss this with you.

Yours in Service,

James David

FROM THE SCRIBE

Greetings from the Scriptorium of al-Barran!

The following baronial scribes were active in completing baronial and kingdom scrolls during the past month: THL Margheurita, Lady Ymany (formerly known as Amanda) Murray, Lord Michael McQuillan, Mistress Caelte, and myself. Two of the above, Lady Ymany and THL Margheurita, also displayed their lovely work at Queen's Prize.

All baronial scribes and those wishing to learn this craft are encouraged to attend Baronial Arts & Sciences on November 20. There will be a full scribal track of classes. Mistress Caelte and I will be teaching as well as Mistress Bennet Murray, the Kingdom Scribe. Bring a calligraphy pen if you have one; some will be provided but it's nice to use your own. If you're not sure what kind to get, wait and attend Mistress Bennet's class on scribal materials. This would also be a good time to sign up for the al-Barran Scribes' List that Mistress Maria Sol de Leon has offered to create and start thinking about scrolls for MidWinter and the next reign.

If you are unable to attend baronial A&S, please contact me privately with your list information and we'll try to put you to work. If you are the recipient of a Kingdom or Baronial award for which you did not receive a scroll, please contact me and I will research the award and try to commission a scroll. If you currently have a back scroll assignment, please contact me. We hope to complete some of these for Midwinter and we plan to have a display table for scrolls at this event.

Yours in Service,

Monika von Zell

FROM THE KNIGHT MARSHALL

Unto the fierce and noble fighters of al-Barran, does Lord Badai send greetings.

Harken to the sounds of the War drums, for there is a threat on the horizon. Atenveldt masses an army in preparation of invasion. Your King calls to his Barons, and your Barron calls to YOU! Ready your armor, sharpen your steal, and train your body for we must meet this threat on the fields of Estrella! Let ALL that stand before US litter the ground and feed the ravens, for, we are the MIGHT known as AL-BARRAN!

Make sure your license to slay (fighter authorization card) is up to date. If you need a new one see myself or any other authorizing marshal as soon as possible. I'll see YOU on the field! fight hard, fight SAFE!

FROM THE MISTRESS OF THE LISTS

Greetings to the great populous of al-Barran,

I hope everyone had a great time at Esperanza this year. At Esperanza, the Master Swordsman and Premiere Blade of al-Barran tourneys were held. Congratulations to Sir Lavan Longwalker and Lord Giovanni Di Lucca the new Master Swordsman and Premiere Blades of al-Barran. To enter the Master Swordsman tourney, the fighters first had to face Master Tore, the outgoing Master Swordsman. The tourney had 18 combatants and was fought as a single fight, double elimination tourney with destructive byes. As an added interest, an eliminated combatant could face Master Tore to regain a life but had to fight the rest of the tourney off-handed. Thank you to Master Tore for organizing and running this very entertaining tourney. The Premiere Blade of al-Barran tourney was fought single fight, double elimination with destructive byes and had 13 entrants. Thanks to Don Govanen for running this tourney.

In addition to the Premiere Blade and Master Swordsman Tourneys, the traditional Esperanza tourneys were also held. The Esperanza Heavy Tourney had 21 entrants and was run single fight, double elimination with the final three entrants in a meanest mother fight. The final round between Master Bela, Lord Brennan and Master Adam was really fun to watch. Master Adam, fighting for the side of good, won the Esperanza Heavy tourney. Thanks to Fierren for running this tourney. Esperanza also had a fencing tourney, run by Michael McQuillan with 11 entrants. This tourney was run single fight, single elimination with cumulative wounds, which added a lot of interest to the tourney. Lord Giovanni Di Lucca won the Esperanza light tourney for the side of Evil.

I would also like to thank all those who helped make the list for these tourneys run smoothly. First off, I would like to thank Baroness Emma for running both the heavy weapons tourneys. I would also like to thank the heralds, His Lordship Cristobal and Lord Aethelwulf and my runners, the wonderful handmaidens. Thanks also to Y, who checked Shaft subscriptions for all the entrants in the Premiere Blade and Master Swordsman tourneys.

In service,

Lady Emery de Tiltun

FROM THE CHRONICLER

Greetings unto all,

Once again an event was absolutely wonderful for the Baronial Shaft, this time Esperanza. Total subscriptions bought at Esperanza was —; the event held the postponed tourneys for the Premier Blade and Master Swordsman. Thank you all for your new subscriptions or renewals. Grateful thank you's go to my deputy, Lord Y Port Lairge for taking care of the subscriptions at Esperanza, it was a great boon for me.

Don't forget that the Arts and Science Champions competition will be held at a Day of A&S on November 20th, so this is yet another opportunity to get your subscription started or renewed; remember if you are planning to enter the A&S champion that you must have a subscription to the Baronial Shaft. So, see you then or if you wish to subscribe before a Day of A&S; I am at Fighter Practice most Sundays, and I am ready to start your subscriptions or take your renewals then.

Thank you, Michael for another wonderful Pony World cartoon and for this month's Toys for Tots cover art. Hmm, I wonder who will be the subject next month's Pony World? I'll leave you with that to ponder.

Lady Kathus

BARONIAL ARTS & SCIENCE CHAMPION

November 20th Toys for Tots A&S Collegium and Ball
Highland High School 4700 Coal

It is time to choose a new Arts and Science Champion for al-Barran. The only requirement to enter is you must have a subscription to the Shaft. The subscriptions and list for the competition will be available from 9:00 -11:00 after that judging will commence.

Sir Qara Gan of Fontaine has already decided to send an army of Fontaine artisans to take this last championship away from us. We can not allow this they have already seized the positions of Baron's Champion and Champion Archer. People of al-Barran rise up and protect this position from the creeping invaders. Prepare your displays, mark your calendars, purchase toys for the gate and make ready for a wonderful day.

Judging for the competition will be Her Excellency Tana and a panel of commentators. They will not be requiring documentation but it will improve your chances of becoming A&S Champ. Other things that will improve your chances are if you have been in other competitions or Queen's Prizes, multiple displays, and Science displays.

Come join Their Excellencies Ryan and Tana and celebrate good friends, good food and good song. Gather in beautiful al-Barran as we enjoy Christmas in the Time of the Troubadours. The hall is decorated with greenery, the Yule log burns, carols waft through the air, the spiced wine simmers, men whisper of Eleanor's famed beauty, women listen enraptured to tales of Richard in the Holy Land, and troubadours fill the hall with song. We take our cue from England and France in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries and the holiday traditions of that time.

Bards and troubadours will entertain you throughout the day with music and song. Vendors will be plying their wares. After court, enjoy European and Middle Eastern dancing. Join us early in the day to light the Yule Log and sing carols. THLord Gonner will host a gaming room in the Tavern area during the day and evening.

Since we are celebrating not only the season, but the Court of Love as well, all good gentles are encouraged to bring some token to reward the courtly behavior of a fellow reveler. In a similar vein, the finest dress and table settings will be acknowledged with suitable tokens.

A delicious feast will be served starting at 3:00 p.m. featuring the following:

First course:

tart of salmon, pickled vegetables, pate, herbed cheese, stuffed eggs, toasts, bread and butter.

Second course:

venyson in broth (beef/venison stew), boore in brassey (pork stew) roasted root vegetables, littiu with fruit (oatmeal/fruit pudding).

Third Course:

broth of thyme with croutons.

Fourth Course:

hens in the Lombard manner (with --or without for dietary concerns-- bacon), rhys stondynge with wardonys in syrrip (rice and pears), French iowtes (peas).

Dessert:

a groaning board of tarts, wafres, small cakes and fruits to be served after court.

Please contact the Feast Steward, Mistress Cailte, with any menu questions or concerns.
